Aquinas College is a Catholic, co-educational, state integrated school, in Tauranga.

We are a community that aims to develop the potential in all our young men and women to fulfil their academic, sporting and cultural pursuits, and who have a strong faith, deep spirituality and are committed to service of others.

Aquinas College has a values-based philosophy and close-knit community. This is evident through the six 'touchstones' of the College – Scholarship, Family, Truth, Service, Prayer and Joy.

We seek a person who has passion for "Mission", is a forward thinking, innovative and inspiring leader with successful senior leadership experience, who can:

- Demonstrate a strong commitment to the College's Special Catholic Character.
- Nurture the shared role of spiritual leadership.
- Demonstrate a commitment to biculturalism and the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi.
- Lead with moral purpose (manaakitanga), have self-belief (pono), guide and support (awhitanga), and be a learner themselves (ako).
- Articulate a clear vision for teaching and learning in a 21st Century context, with future-focused pedagogy.
- Confidently be our 'Leader of Learning', keeping student achievement and wellbeing at the heart of decision-making.
- Build collaborative relationships with staff, students and our community.
- Inspire and strengthen a diverse, passionate team of staff.
- Build effective partnerships between our College, the Parishes, contributing schools, and parents, whānau, and communities.
- Work alongside the Board in its review of cultural inclusive practices, strategic planning, and community engagement.

A willingness and ability to participate in religious instruction appropriate to the special character of the school is a condition of appointment.

Applications close noon, 18th August 2017. Online application documentation can be accessed from <http://www.aquinas.school.nz/staff-vacancies/>
